

How often does the isolation effect change sign across starting populations?

Mixed means at least one starting population above +threshold and another below -threshold.

Labels use repeat means; they are not noise-free branching probabilities. Numbers: mixed / eligible histories.

Bars: 95% independent-history Hoeffding bounds; undefined histories are excluded from this denominator.